THE CORN STATUES OF VINTON

Once upon a time, there were 19 corn statues in the quiet town of Vinton. Nineteen statues that reflected the originality of its residents.

Then one cold & frosty night, a fire raged through the little downtown, leaving store fronts reduced to smoldering ash. Time stood still. No soul was harmed. Yet one corn statue was sadly gone.

Now 18 statues still remain and resolute they carry on. Together they will always be, quite simply known as ... The Corn Statues of ...
Vinton
